

THE TOOMBUL TIMES

JULY 2019 NEWSLETTER

DEVELOPMENT UPDATE

We have made it to the halfway point. Upstairs is progressing well with our new dining precinct set to open by the end of this year.

The Level 1 void infills have commenced and you would have recently noticed the installation of our glitter hoarding around voids in front of the cinema and McDonald's while these works are being done. There will also be a temporary scaffold structure installed in the food court in July to support the void infills. This will be overhead and will not cause any obstructions from the ground floor. Access to Level 1 via the travelators and the temporary staircase will remain during this time.

If you have any questions or concerns about the impact of any of the development works, please get in touch with our Centre Manager Melanie Hodge.

To stay up to date, please also follow our @UPSTAIRS Instagram account.

SCHOOL HOLIDAYS

It's time to pARTy these school holidays! The youngest of art enthusiasts can put their hands and imaginations to work at our Art Lab creating their own mini masterpieces. Art Lab will be popping up in the space next to Watchworks from 1 July to 8 July.

The program will include:

- 1 July | Crafty Cacti Gardens
- 2 July | Dazzling Dream Catchers
- 3 July | Fancy Finger Buns with Bakers Delight
- 4 July | Delicious Donuts with Donut King
- 5 July | Kiss Biscuits with Lemaire's Bistro

RETAILER ACTIVITIES

To accompany our Art Lab activity zone, there will also be some instore entertainment for kids.

Lemaire's Bistro is bringing a kids' cooking school to Toombul. Each child will be making a range of delicious wholemeal Italian inspired dishes to take home, all while learning how to read a recipe and discovering basic culinary skills. These workshops will be held at Lemaire's Bistro on 2 July and 4 July.

Spendless Shoes will also be running a kids' activity station out the front of their store. Here kids can design their own notebook for free from 2 - 4 July, 10am to 1pm.

NAIDOC WEEK

NAIDOC Week falls from 8 July to 14 July and during the week we will be celebrating the history, culture and achievements of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. Local artist and designer, Rachael Sarra will be painting a mural at the centre on 8th and 9th of July. As an Aboriginal artist from Goreng Goreng Country, Rachael uses bold, feminine, contemporary art as a powerful tool in storytelling to educate and share Aboriginal culture. Rachael will also be designing some activity pages for kids to complete at our activity zone from 10 - 12 July. You will be able to watch her work from the space next to Watchworks.

STAFF PARKING

Just a reminder that all staff, including weekend casual staff, are required to park in designated staff car parking spaces. These are located on the Target/Kmart rooftop or directly behind the cinemas.

Due to the development works taking place, it is extremely important that we leave the prime parking available to our customers.

If you have any questions about this please contact our Retail Manager, Michelle Lucadou-Wells - michelle.lucadou-wells@mirvac.com
